(Legal basis: Fulfilment of our legal obligations in the area of data security and legitimate interest in the elimination of faults and the security of our offers).

4.3.2 Customer Surveys

We process your data to improve our business relationship. In order to improve the design of future surveys, we read about the type of terminal device you use to process the survey. The survey link will be available for you for three weeks. After two weeks, you will receive a reminder. Each time you use the Internet, your Internet browser automatically transmits certain information and we store it in so-called log files.

The log files are stored by us for at least 90 days to determine malfunctions and security reasons (e.g. to clarify attempted attacks) and can be used for incidents. Archived log files are stored in a compressed form for legal purposes for one year. - Name of the service provider via which the online service is accessed;
